RE: Our Client/Claimant: Yu-Liang Lei
Date of Accident: 11/23/07

Dear Sir/Madam:

Please be advised that the undersigned law firm represents Yu-Liang Lei in an action for personal injuries he sustained as a result of an incident which occurred on November 23, 2007, at the Circuit City Store, designated as Store #3697, located at 136-03 20th Avenue, College Point, New York 11356. At that time, Mr. Lei was a lawful patron of the aforementioned store, waiting in line for the store to open, when he was run into, knocked over and trampled by a large accumulation of store patrons attempting to gain access to said store upon its opening. As a result of said incident, Mr. Lei sustained multiple injuries, including but not limited to a bimalleolar fracture of his left ankle, which required open reduction surgery with internal fixation.

The undersigned law firm has commenced a personal injury lawsuit on behalf of Mr. Lei, against Circuit City Stores, Inc. and other entities, in the Supreme Court of the State of New York, County of New York, to recover monetary damages on his behalf, in order to compensate him for his injuries, medical expenses, lost wages and past and future pain and suffering.

For your convenience, I have enclosed copies of the Plaintiff's Summons and Verified Complaint, the Verified Answers interposed on behalf of the named Defendants, and the Verified Bills of Particulars served on behalf of the Plaintiff, Yu-Liang Lei.

Accordingly, kindly accept this letter as notice of Yu-Liang Lei's Administrative E
